Nothing is more exciting than the circus, and when that circus is performed by insects too small to be seen, the crowds love it. Bringing back the golden days of variety entertainment, this production features a beautiful old-time circus; in miniature. The show comes complete with its own sound system, riser platform, and old-fashioned circus banners, offering a stunning visual attraction. It's adaptable to your situation, inside or out.

We are proud to have assembled this most magnificent micro-menagerie of mini-stars, made possible by modern technical wizardry. Looking to generate public interest in your event? Tell them you have fleas! Here are a few of the featured acts:

Trapeze artistry in thin air done by the "Flying Fleazeenies".
Feats of strength performed by
"Arnold Schwartzenflea".
That master of micro magic and mystery,
"Hairy Fleadini".

Spectacular circus acts and audience participation; who could ask for more? It's a show the whole family will be itching to see. Looking for sponsorship dollars? We have ideas your marketing department will love. Promotional DVD available.
